CALL FOR WORKSHOP PROPOSALS
2016 Student Personnel Administrators’ Conference
Creating Holistic and Seamless Learning Environments in Student Affairs
April 13–15, 2016
Embassy Suites Phoenix—Scottsdale
Phoenix, Arizona

This collaborative event invites workshop proposals that address the upcoming conference theme (Creating Holistic and Seamless Learning Environments in Student Affairs) in the area of student services including admissions, cabinets, career services, enrollment management, financial aid, housing, registrars, and more. Sessions should be policy oriented, have active participation of the group, and offer time for reflection and sharing. They may include relevant handouts. Please plan the session for 75 minutes in length.

Proposals should include:
• Name, institution, and position (if you are proposing a panel, please list all presenters)
• Contact information (phone, email, and mailing address) for each presenter
• Qualifications of presenter(s) (please include your curriculum vitae)
• Workshop title and 100- to 150-word description of the presentation
• Target audience (e.g., admissions, cabinets, career services, etc.)

Proposals will be selected based on:
• The degree to which the proposal addresses the conference theme
• Relevance of session content to the intended target audience
• Practical application and demonstrated results

The deadline for submission of proposals is Wednesday, August 12, 2015.
Those whose proposals have been accepted will be notified after August 30, 2015.
Please direct questions regarding format or content and mail or email proposals to:
