

COMMISSION'S STATEMENT OF ACCREDITED STATUS

Logsdon Seminary of Logsdon School of Theology of Hardin-Simmons University
2200 Hickory Street
PO Box 16235
Abilene, TX 79698-6235

Logsdon Seminary of Logsdon School of Theology of Hardin-Simmons University has been accredited by the Commission on Accreditation (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools since 2006. The school's accreditation was last reaffirmed in summer 2011, based on an institutional self study report and an onsite evaluation visit by a committee of peer and public reviewers.

In June 2020, the Board of Commissioners voted to accept the school's voluntary withdrawal from accredited membership in the ATS Commission on Accrediting, effective December 31, 2023, to approve the school's teach-out plan, and to rescind the comprehensive visit scheduled for spring 2022.

The school's current status of Accredited in Good Standing means the school meets all applicable COA Standards of Accreditation. The school demonstrates educational quality and financial stability and provides evidence that its student learning outcomes are appropriate, rigorous, and being achieved. The school has no public sanctions (notation/warning, probation, or show cause).

The school is approved to offer the following degree(s): MDiv, MA (Religion), MA in Family Ministry, DMin

The Board has granted approval for the school to offer distance (online) education at the following level: Comprehensive (Half or More of a Degree)

The school is approved for the following additional location(s) offering half or more of a degree:

Corpus Christi, TX

San Antonio, TX

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.
