COMMISSION'S STATEMENT OF ACCREDITED STATUS

Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary
5001 North Oak Trafficway
Kansas City, MO 64118

Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary has been accredited by the Commission on Accreditation (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools since 1964. The school's accreditation was last reaffirmed in summer 2013, based on an institutional self study report and an onsite evaluation visit by a committee of peer and public reviewers. The school's current period of accreditation expires July 31, 2023.

The school's current status of Accredited in Good Standing means the school meets all applicable COA Standards of Accreditation. The school demonstrates educational quality and financial stability and provides evidence that its student learning outcomes are appropriate, rigorous, and being achieved. The school has no public sanctions (notation/warning, probation, or show cause).

The school is approved to offer the following degree(s): MDiv, MA (Biblical Languages), MA in Biblical Counseling, MA in Christian Education, MA in Intercultural Studies, MA in Worship Ministries, MTS, ThM, DEdMin, DMin, EdD, PhD

The Board has granted approval for the school to offer distance (online) education at the following level: Comprehensive (Half or More of a Degree)

The school does not have approval for any additional location(s) to offer half or more of a degree.

In June 2020, the ATS Board of Commissioners approved a five-year experiment allowing for a reduced-residency PhD, limited to offering courses through synchronous interactive video.

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.
