COMMISSION'S STATEMENT OF ACCREDITED STATUS

Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary
558 South Avenue
Weston, MA 02493-2699

Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary has been accredited by the Commission on Accreditation (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools since 1983. The school's accreditation was last reaffirmed in summer 2019, based on an institutional self study report and an onsite evaluation visit by a committee of peer and public reviewers. The school's current period of accreditation expires July 31, 2029.

The school's current status of Accredited in Good Standing means the school meets all applicable COA Standards of Accreditation. The school demonstrates educational quality and financial stability and provides evidence that its student learning outcomes are appropriate, rigorous, and being achieved. The school has no public sanctions (notation/warning, probation, or show cause).

The school is approved to offer the following degree(s): MDiv

The school is not approved to offer any distance (online) education.

The school does not have approval for any additional location(s) to offer half or more of a degree.

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.
