COMMISSION'S STATEMENT OF ACCREDITED STATUS

Seattle Pacific Seminary
3307 3rd Avenue, West
Seattle, WA 98119

Seattle Pacific Seminary has been accredited by the Commission on Accreditation (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools since 2016. The school's accreditation was initially granted in summer 2016, based on an institutional self study report and an onsite evaluation visit by a committee of peer and public reviewers. The school's current period of accreditation expires July 31, 2023.

The school's current status of Accredited in Good Standing means the school meets all applicable COA Standards of Accreditation. The school demonstrates educational quality and financial stability and provides evidence that its student learning outcomes are appropriate, rigorous, and being achieved. The school has no public sanctions (notation/warning, probation, or show cause).

The school is approved to offer the following degree(s): MDiv, MA in Theology

The school has notified the Commission that the following approved degree(s) will be discontinued (i.e., to be deleted when the last student has exited the program): MA (Christian Scripture), MA (Christian Studies), MA in Christian Leadership, MA in Reconciliation and Intercultural Studies

The Board has granted approval for the school to offer distance (online) education at the following level: Comprehensive (Half or More of a Degree)

The school does not have approval for any additional location(s) to offer half or more of a degree.

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.
