The school is approved for the following additional location(s) offering half or more of a degree:

Milpitas, CA

Roseville, CA

In February 2022, the ATS Board of Commissioners approved a three-year experiment permitting synchronous online delivery as an exception to residency for half or more of the Doctor of Philosophy in Intercultural Education program.

The Commission on Accrediting (COA) of The Association of Theological Schools accredits more than 250 graduate schools of theology and seminaries in the United States and Canada. The COA has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 as an accreditor of freestanding, single-purpose institutions and of specialized programs at larger institutions offering post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education. The COA is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation as a national faith-related accrediting organization that accredits free-standing seminaries and academic units of larger institutions in the United States and Canada that offer post-baccalaureate degrees in professional and academic theological education.
