

CBTE 2022 gathering at CBExchange to be held this fall

By RUTH MCGILLIVRAY

The fifth annual gathering on competency-based theological education—CBTE 2022—will be held during CBExchange, October 18 to 21, 2022, at the Omni Amelia Island Resort in Fernandina Beach, Florida.

CBExchange, an annual conference hosted by C-BEN, is the foremost conference on competency-based education. Leaders from hundreds of institutions gather to learn how to build and bring to scale high-quality programs. For the past three years, a CBTE cohort has gathered at CBExchange and offered a CBTE-dedicated track alongside the CBExchange conference.

This year, we are excited to announce a new format. CBTE participants will attend CBExchange sessions throughout the day and meet as the CBTE Cohort to share ideas and discussion in the morning and late afternoon. This means that we will not be running a separate track, but taking advantage of the fantastic material the CBExchange Conference has to offer. Our CBTE-focused discussions will be stimulating and thought-provoking,

CBTE 2022
Competency-Based Theological Education

CBExchange

considering the teachings received throughout the day and their applications in the context of theological education.

The Association of Theological Schools (ATS) is generously offering a scholarship of $500 toward CBExchange registration and $300 toward conference hotel costs to a limited number of CBExchange Conference attendees who will attend the CBTE Cohort discussions. Scholarship applicants must be affiliated with an ATS member school, with a maximum of up to two scholarships awarded per school. More information, along with the scholarship application form, is available from cbte.ca.

If you have questions, please contact Ruth McGillivray or Nikki Lanigan at cbte@nbseminary.ca

Ruth McGillivray is Interim President and Chief Operating Officer at Northwest Seminary in Langley, British Columbia.