

March 11, 2020

Dear New Faculty colleagues,

Thank you for all you have done to prepare for the Roundtable Seminar for New Faculty in Jacksonville, Florida at the end of the month. You may have received an email today from ATS Executive Director Frank Yamada indicating that due to concerns over the spread of COVID-19, ATS is postponing three of our gatherings this month, including our New Faculty seminar.

In conversation with the hotel, we have rescheduled the meeting for October 2-4, 2020, with the preconference on the morning of October 2, as originally designed.

What does this mean for you?

- In order to honor the selection process, we will hold your registration for the October meeting (including registration fees paid).
- We will also transfer your hotel reservations to the October meeting.
- You should cancel/repurpose your flight as soon as possible. Given the Coronavirus situation, most airlines are allowing flights to be repurposed.
- Please contact us if you will be unable to attend in October.

Blessings to all of you as you do your work in your institutions and attend to family and friends during these uncertain days. If you have any questions, please contact me or Monica Laughery.

Sincerely,
Debbie Gin
Director of Research and Faculty Development
The Association of Theological Schools